

Senior editor, Media Education Research Centre (MERC), Kashmir University, Muslim Jan recently attended a training programme organised by South Asian Association of Regional Conference (SAARC) in Dhaka, Bangladesh.

The programme titled “Role of media in disaster risk reduction in South Asia” was organised by SAARC Disaster Management Centre in collaboration with National Institute of Mass Communication (NIMC) Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Muslim Jan was the only candidate selected from J&K state to attend the training programme. During the two week long programme, she presented a paper titled “Role of media in man-made disaster” with special reference to Kashmir. At the end of this training programme, Muslim was awarded a certificate of achievement by National Institute of Mass Communication (NIMC) Dhaka.
