Item: To provisionally select candidates among the exempted candidates to appear in the entrance for pursuit of Ph.D Programme in Mass Communication & Journalism Batch 2022, an interactive-cum-counselling session was held on 21st July, 2022 at MERC

Resolution: The DRC found following observations shown against each candidate who appeared in an interactive-cum-counselling session for admission to Ph.D Programme in Mass Communication & Journalism Batch 2022

S.No.	Name of the Candidate
1.	Syed Adil Shamim Andrabi	The candidate did not present any research idea before the DRC. The interaction was quite dismal and candidate could not respond to queries raised by DRC.
2.	Aaqib Hamid Wani	The proposed research topic of the candidate was not clear and lacked viability. The Presentation and Communication Skills were poor. The candidate could not display any research aptitude during the interaction with the DRC members.
3.	Pallavi Sareen	The candidate proposed the research idea/topic that is already researched and worked upon by various scholars/subject experts at local, national and international level. The expected contribution to existing body of knowledge was very low in the proposed topic. Besides, the knowledge about Research Method/Plan was not satisfactory.
4.	Yusra Khan	The candidate did not present any research idea before the DRC. The interaction was quite dismal and candidate could not respond to queries raised by DRC.
5.	Muntaha Amin	The candidate proposed the research idea that was appreciated by the DRC given the fact that very less research work has been conducted in the said subject area. The research aptitude and communication skills of the candidate were satisfactory.

In response to letter No.F(Grev-admission-merc-Res)ku dated 11/5/2023, the Departmental Research Committee was convened. The DRC resolved as follows:

- a) After threadbare discussion and evaluating the presentations of the candidates who were present for the interaction the final selection was prepared.
- b) The DRC reiterated the clause IX of Statute 3 of Admission Notification to Ph.D Programme 2022 dated May 10,2022 wherein it is stated
"Mere appearance in the list of qualified candidates shall not entitle a candidate to the final selection."
- c) The DRC reasserts its decision that the selection list was strictly finalized as per the research assessment laid down by Clause IX of Statute 3 which states
"The entrance test qualified candidates shall be required to appear before the DRC for common interaction along with the exempted candidates other than JRFs and WoS and INSPIRE fellows with fellowships to ascertain (i) student interest (ii) inclination (iii) research aptitude (iv) area of specialization/interest and DRC shall finalize the list of selected candidates and their supervisors."
- d) The DRC expressed its disappointment over the repeated communication questioning the academic integrity of the DRC member vis-à-vis the selection process for the Ph.D programme.
